

July 31, 1973

Dear General Walters,

It was most gracious of you to reply so quickly to my request for a recommendation.
Please accept my sincerest
thanks for your wonderfully kind words.

And please give my regards to

Sincerely,

STAT

STAT

Approved For Release 2003/07/29 : CIA-RDP80R01731R001900060050-5

*Lieutenant General
Vernon A. Walters
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505*

Approved For Release 2003/07/29 : CIA-RDP80R01731R001900060050-5

5AT

Approved For Release 2003/07/29 : CIA-RDP80R01731R001900060050-5

Next 1 Page(s) In Document Exempt

Approved For Release 2003/07/29 : CIA-RDP80R01731R001900060050-5

July 15, 1972

Dear General Walters,

On the basis of our short acquaintance in Paris during 1968-69, I am taking the liberty of writing to you here in Washington. (My husband,

STAT

Last month I received a teaching credential from United States International University in San Diego, and am currently seeking a job in the teaching field. It would be a great asset if I could have in my file a recommendation from a gentleman of your high stature and reputation. I am enclosing a recommendation form from USIU with a self-addressed envelope. If you would consider completing it and returning it to the University I would be most grateful.

-2-

I realize this is an imposition, and will certainly understand if you feel our acquaintance is too slight for you to fulfill such a request.

Sincerely,

STAT